

Top Two Questions Christians Ask:

1. How can I know God's will?
2. How can I be a success for God, others and myself?

Stewardship is a matter of trust.

Trust is the most important factor in:

1. Knowing God and His will for my life
2. Growing His kingdom and myself as a steward

Observations on Proverbs 3:1-10

1. Commands are all-inclusive
2. The commands precede a promise
3. The promises are conditional
 - a. Learn God's truth
 - b. Obey God's will
 - c. Share in God's blessings

Stewardship Statements

1. God is trustworthy. He is worthy of our complete confidence. He is totally dependable.
2. God has entrusted (placed in our care) the possessions, opportunities, talents, and time that we now experience.
3. We are trustees of everything God has given to us.

Questions we need to ask ourselves:

- Do I trust God?
- Is He truly my source?
- Do I trust Him in everything?
- Can God trust me?
- Have I proven to be a trustworthy person?

Trustworthy Thoughts About God:

1. God's care is constant (Hebrews 13:5-6)
2. God's gifts are generous (Psalms 136:1-9)

How to Develop our Trust:

1. Trusting in Adversity - we are responsible to trust Him in times of adversity. We are dependent upon the Holy Spirit to enable us to do so. (Psalm 56:4, 34:4, Deuteronomy 31:8, Psalm 46:1)
2. Trusting in Plenty - the extent to which we genuinely thank God for the blessings He provides is an indicator of our trust in Him. (Proverbs 8:18, 10:22)
3. Trusting God as our Source - human tendency is to trust in God's instruments of provision rather than God Himself. (Proverbs 18:10-11, 2 Corinthians 3:5, John 15:5)
